

PLENTY OF ACTION IN THIS PICKHANDLE RAID

Deputies Manage to Outwit Amazonian Person up at Monongah.

The moonshine was there, back of the cow shed, and Katie, Katie appeared on the scene just as Deputy Sheriff Jim Barrett and John Glover were about to pour out a barrel of pick-handle which they had brought out of her brother's house in Monongah Saturday afternoon, together with a two gallon jug of what appeared to be hard liquor.

At first Katie remonstrated, but seeing that prayers and entreaties were of no avail, she gently but firmly leaned upwards of two hundred and fifty pounds of femininity against the off side of the barrel and dared the deputies to do their worst. And they did. They dug their toes into the earth and pushed but the female Gibraltar stood her ground and might have held immovable for an indefinite period but for one tactical blunder. As Jim Barrett pushed against the deputies side of the barrel, it occurred to Katie that if she could only place one of the deputies hors de combat, the other would be, in a manner of speaking, pie. So she aimed a swipe at Jim's head with a spigot. Jim ducked, Katie lost her balance, also her strategic position, and before she could recover her equilibrium, over went the barrel.

Sheriff Glover, who was in charge of the raiding party, will probably be asked to furnish a guard for the two deputies when they go back to arrest the brother.

A pain in his side from laughing was the flimsy excuse of Deputy Sheriff Howard Woodward when asked why he did not come to the rescue instead of leaning against a fence not on foot away.

In addition to her physical prowess, Katie challenged the admiration of even the hardened officers by her unceasing flow of profanity in the use of which she seemed equally at home in both English and Horwatt.

Sister Mary's Kitchen

There's nothing like being ready for things when they come. Nowadays when the housekeeper is so independent on her own muscle any brush or broom that will save her strength or time is very much worth her while.

Soft brushes are a big help in washing woodwork. The bristles "take hold" better than a cloth and do not endanger the finish.

Soaps and polishing creams for silver and brass wear are all necessary for the spring cleaning.

Floor wax for linoleum and hardwood floors is easy to use if on hand at the moment wanted.

Menu for Tomorrow

BREAKFAST — Baked apples, cooked cereal, toast, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Rinkum diddle, French cake, canned peaches, tea.

DINNER — Baked mutton, caper cauliflower, rice, mashed turnips, grapefruit salad, brown Betty, coffee.

They say there's nothing in a name, but surely "rinkum diddle" would not be half so good if known as tomato cheese on toast. If one is serving a number of people in the evening this rinkum diddle dish is unusually easy and good. It can be made in a chafing dish, in the dining room or behind the closed doors in the kitchen.

Rinkum Diddle

3 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
3 tablespoons cream
1-8 teaspoon soda
1-2 cup strained tomato juice
2 cups grated cheese
eggs
Melt butter, stir in flour. Add

COLORED CITIZENS FORM ORGANIZATION

They Are Going to Go After Funds for a Community House.

A committee appointed by colored citizens of this city at the last Parent-Teachers' meeting met Sunday afternoon at the Trinity M. E. church and elected F. H. Jackson, president, and W. B. Crenshaw, secretary of a permanent body of persons who will work hard in an endeavor to have a community house here for the benefit of colored children.

William B. Crenshaw, Prof. Chamberlain and Miss Lee were appointed to report at a public meeting to be held on March 23 as to plans and resolutions formed. A committee on location, costs and other details consists of Prof. Armstrong, Thomas Kellar and Grant Boyer. These committees will endeavor to put their plans up to all organizations interested in the good of the colored people and it is hoped that in the face of what the colored people have contributed to public spirited movements from time to time, in return they may have the help they need in the building of a community house for young people.

Nearly $5,000 has been raised by the colored people in this city in two years over half going to war activities. The colored people feel they want a community house or a "Y" which may be attended by their young people so that the best sort of environment may be theirs in their upbringing. It is hoped the people of Fairmont may support such a worthy movement.

Threw Away Bonds Said Were Stolen

County officers went to Barrackville yesterday to investigate the story of the theft of three hundred dollars worth of Liberty bonds reported by John Shemsky, who claimed that the securities had been stolen from his trunk during his absence from his boarding house. The trunk was found to have been secured with three locks which were found to be intact. No trace of a robbery could be found.

The sequel to the story will have a tendency to make John about as popular as the small-pox around the sheriff's office. This is what happened. Last Saturday, John came in to the Fairmont National Bank with five one hundred dollar Liberty bonds in an envelope, to collect the interest. Going to the wrong window, he removed the bonds from the envelope and stuck them through the window. Up on being told to go to another window, he attempted hurriedly to replace the bonds in the envelope, but dropped three on the floor. The discovery that there were only two bonds in the envelope, resulted in the brain storm that shook a Barrackville boarding house to its very foundations, brought three county officers to the scene and caused several innocent persons to be suspected of a crime that never was committed.

The bank officials to whom the bonds were given by a patron of the bank, who picked them up, have made John as happy as it's possible for one of his erratic nature to become.
